The purpose of a program assessment is to gather, analyze and evaluate information on an ongoing capacity in an effort to help organizations understand and recognize ways they can improve.

This assessment consists of an examination of all volunteer materials, interviews with all key staff members to collectively discuss goals and fears in regards to current volunteer engagement and future possibilities.

These findings were used to provide a needs assessment focused on improvements and creating a plan to prioritize the volunteer departments needs and goals.

In 1953, Mr. Ray Chastain, along with his wife Alice and other caring and concerned Christians in Tucson, founded Gospel Rescue Mission.

The Gospel Rescue Mission serves the homeless and needy by providing for their spiritual, physical, emotional, and mental wholeness through the power of Jesus Christ.

As the Gospel Rescue Mission continues to grow and evolve, they continue to be dedicated to becoming the most effective life changing ministry in Tucson that serves the homeless and needy.

1. How are we currently using volunteers?
2. How can we improve the way we use volunteers?
3. What are our goals for the volunteer program?
4. What do we want our culture of volunteerism to be?
5. What are our current fears/concerns within the volunteer program?
